&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor Kul&#252;b&#252; is a multi-sports club based in Adana, Turkey. The football department is the most popular department&#127817; which secured 4th place at the 2024–23 S&#252;per Lig and qualified for European competitions for the first time in their&#127817; history. The club also competes in rowing, table tennis, taekwondo and volleyball.[2] Founded by railway workers of Turkish State Railways&#127817; (TCDD) in 1940, The football team&#39;s success at the Adana League and the water polo team&#39;s unbeaten National League titles&#127817; in the club&#39;s first three decades built a large worker fan base in the city. Some supporters who are unhappy&#127817; with the management of the club, founded Adanaspor in 1954 and competition among the two clubs for the city wide support&#127817; and domination since then, created one of the fiercest rivalries of Turkish football which continues to this day as the&#127817; Adana derby.[3] From 1970s to late 2010s, the club had less success than their archrival, did not win a major&#127817; title and had not participated in any European competitions, though continued to gain wider support than Adanaspor[citation needed] and became&#127817; one of the most supported clubs in Turkey. The club&#39;s recent success at the Super Lig and qualification for the&#127817; UEFA Conference League and Adanaspor&#39;s decline is widening the gap between two clubs further in terms of fan support and&#127817; club value.&lt;/p&gt;

&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor was the first club based outside of Istanbul, Ankara, or İzmir to join the National Football League&#127817; in the 1960–61 season, before this the league games were only hosted in the three cities.[4][5] The water polo team&#127817; was the first champions of the Turkish Water Polo League and had dominated the first three decades of the league,&#127817; winning 21 league titles in 25 years, from the early 1940s to mid 1960s.&lt;/p&gt;

&lt;p&gt;Adana Demirspor are by far the most&#127817; successful of the 38 Demirspor clubs that are founded by the employees of the Turkish State Railways (TCDD) Tj T* BT

spor, and bear the TCDD symbol on their logo. Ankara Demirspor are the&#127817; only other Demirspor club that compete in the Turkish professional football league system, and the only ones that are still&#127817; affiliated with the TCDD.&lt;/p&gt;
