Version history

Windows 2.0 was released in December 1987, and was more popular than its predecessor. It features several improvements to the user interface and memory management.[19] Windows 2.03 changed the OS from tiled windows to overlapping windows. The result of this change led to Apple Computer filing a suit against Microsoft alleging infringement on Apple's copyrights (eventually settled).

roduced more sophisticated keyboard shortcuts and could make use of expanded memory.

Windows 10

Windows 11 is the first version to drop support for 32-bit hardware.[62]
