Zombie movies

highlight the fe ars of our time. Reanimated corpses are innately pretty terrifying, but they are also pretty political. Since the genre was created, zombie stories have reflected the unique social fears of that moment in history.

We are use d to seeing and processing human faces and objects, but seeing an ee rie, near-human image such as a zombie triggers fear. The face we s ee technically has all the features that should make it recognisable to us as a human but instead we are faced with something feral, lacking humanity.
