Do you have to pay this "resort fee"? No. You do not legally have to pay any hotel fee. The resort fee is a charge that hotels add to the room rate. It is often used to cover the cost of amenities like towels, toiletries, and breakfast. However, in some cases, the fee is used to cover the cost of services like parking, laundry, and room service. If you are staying at a hotel and are charged a resort fee, you should check the hotel's website or ask the front desk for more information. You may be able to negotiate the fee or get a waiver if you are a frequent traveler or a member of a loyalty program.
