Your account doesn't allow Sign in with Google. This can happen when you use an account from another organization, sometimes only for specific apps or services. You can try to sign in with your Google account instead.

Commonly, this happens when you use a service that requires a specific permission, such as location or contacts. You can check the permissions for the app or service in your device settings.

For more information, see the help page for the service you are using.

Public relations (PR) is the communication between an organization and the public. It is a way to manage the organization's reputation and to provide information about the organization to the public.
